USSA Coaches and Athletes, very important info below

USSA Competitor and Coaches Information – (Officials too that need access on the course)

USSA Competitors who are planning on training THURSDAY MUST HAVE/WEAR YOUR USSA BIB & WRISTBAND FROM REGISTRATION AND BE LISTED ON THE OFFICIAL SLOPESTYLE START LIST TO ACCESS SLOPESTYLE COURSE. Bibs & wristband will only be allowed for training access Thursday and they must be worn while in Dark Territory. Bibs must also be worn on event day.

All coaches need to go to the Competition Center, located in the Balcony House at the base of Winter Park, and sign the Dark Territory Waiver before going to the course. Coaches will be given a temporary pass that will be valid for entry Thursday and Friday only. It must be with you at all times for entrance into the area. Coaches are required to have a pass Thursday and Friday. A Dark Territory pass will be required after the conclusion of the event.

To sum it all up - Thursday - Friday

Competitors will need either a Dark Territory Pass OR wristband and BIB to access course.
Coaches will need a Dark Territory Pass OR the TEMP PASS acquired at the Comp Center.
NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE BY PARK CREW STAFF SO PLEASE PLAN AHEAD.

Medium jump options will be in place for Thursday's training and the Park Crew staff located at the entrance will have information regarding what features will be included in the slopestyle.

Thank you for respecting our park policies.
